

I use my XM radio in my truck to get advance information on traffic and weather for metropolitan areas up to 100 miles in advance so that I have time to adjust my routing to avoid major traffic slowdowns thus saving me time and fuel by avoiding these problem areas. no land based radio can give me this kind of service as to recieve most local stations you must be within 50 miles which doesn't give me enough time. please leave a good thing alone!!!!